Symposium Overview

This activity is designed for otolaryngologists and allied health professionals and will focus on the current concepts and latest advances in the diagnosis and management of hearing loss, vestibular disorders, and skull base pathology. Participants will have the opportunity to gain insights into the emerging evidence, optimize patient selection for implantable hearing technologies, and integrate minimally invasive surgical techniques into practice. Through interactive lectures and case discussions, this activity delivers practical strategies to enhance clinical decision-making and improve patient outcomes in the rapidly evolving field of neurotology.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this activity, participants should be able to:

- Apply evidence-based diagnostic algorithms incorporating audiologic, vestibular, and imaging modalities to evaluate patients with neurotologic symptoms.
- Evaluate candidacy and outcomes for cochlear implants, bone conduction devices, and emerging hearing technologies in diverse patient populations.
- Integrate advanced surgical techniques, including endoscopic and minimally invasive approaches, into clinical practice where appropriate.
- Develop multidisciplinary management plans for patients with complex neurotologic conditions, including vestibular schwannoma and autoimmune inner ear disease.
- Differentiate and manage vestibular disorders using current evidence-based strategies to improve patient-reported outcomes.
- Incorporate emerging technologies and innovations, including virtual and simulation tools, into clinical practice and education.

Accreditation

In support of improving patient care, Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Physicians: Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences designates this live activity for a maximum of 4.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Nurses: This activity is awarded 4.25 ANCC contact hours. Nurses should only claim those contact hours actually spent participating in the activity.

Physician Associates: NCCPA accepts certificates of participation for educational activities approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ from organizations accredited by ACCME.

Method of Participation

In order to meet the learning objectives and receive continuing education credits, participants are expected to register for the symposium, check in at the registration desk, attend the program and complete an online evaluation form at the conclusion of the program. A CE certificate will be emailed to participants upon completion of the online evaluation.

The relevant financial relationships of all individuals who affect the content of continuing education activities and any discussion of off-label/investigational uses will be disclosed to the audience at the time of the activity.
