

RUTGERS HEALTH

Center for Continuing Education 2019 Professional Development Series

Flourishing in Clinical Practice: Connecting with Self & Others

Come learn from Majella Greene, MSc MA BA Hons DipSW FRSA, of Majella Green & Associates. She is a UK-based registered social worker with Masters degrees in both Applied Positive Psychology and Social Work Policy and Research. She currently serves as chair of the board of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT).

The seminar will provide continuing education by meeting the following objectives:

1. Appraise the clinician's use of self in their current clinical practice.
2. Describe the use of presence in achieving optimal relationships with clients.
3. Discuss strategies for implementing personal boundaries that allow for authenticity and growth.
4. Assess dimensions of clinical practice that dampen energy and personal mission.
5. Construct personal resources and strategies for intentional self-care as a mental health provider.
